

TERRA DARTS

INSTRUCTIONS

Seattle Sports Terra Darts Rules

Terra Darts are a great game for the backyard, campsite, or almost anywhere else. Weighing only 6.2 oz, you can easily find a place for it in your backpack or car.

Number of players: 1 – 4

Set-up

Spread out each rope ring 5 paces (15 feet) away from each other (adjust this distance for an easier or more difficult game). Fill each zippered pouch with small pebbles, a large rock, a golf ball, or sand (be cautious while using sand to avoid breaking the zippers). Sand and pebbles make the darts settle quickly while a rock or golf ball will provide bounce and roll.

Scoring

- 3 points: The entire dart (tail and head) lands in the rope ring
- 2 points: The head of the dart lands completely in the rope ring
- 1 point: Any partial part (tail or head) of the dart rests in the rope ring

Stand at one of the rope circles and throw to the other one, alternating players and rings. First player to 21 points wins! If two players hit 21 or over in the same round, highest score wins. If the score is tied, play another round until one player ends a round with more points than the others.

Game Play for one person

Throw all four darts, one at a time. Count how many rounds it takes to reach 21 points and try to improve.

Game Play for two people

Each person chooses a color and alternates throws. To speed things up, you may also have each person throw all four darts during their turn. In that case, award a bonus point if any player scores with three or more darts in a round.

Game Play for three people

With three players, players should alternate throwing all four darts. Award a bonus point if any player scores with three or more darts in a round.

Game Play for four people

Four players may play as two teams. One player from each team should stand on either end and alternate throwing the team's two darts. You can also play head-to-head using the rules for two people.
